

3D with Antony Gormley

Vital Vocabulary	Definition	Illustration:
Clay	Clay is a material that is soft when it is wet and hard when it is dry.
Metal	Hard material such as iron and steel.
Model	Form a shape with a material like clay.
Cut	Split something in to pieces.
Stick	Join things together, permanently.
Bend	Use force on something to make it curved.
Fold	Bending something so that one part covers another part then press the edge so that it stays in place.
Attach	When you join it or fasten it to another object.
Assemble	Fit different parts together.
Statue	A large piece of art made from wood, metal or stone being shaped into a person, animal or something imaginary.

Knowledge facts

Antony Gormley is a British artist from London.

Antony Gormley's main type of art is sculpture.

Antony Gormley's sculptures are mainly based on the human body.

To make the sculptures, Antony Gormley wraps parts of himself in cling-film (avoiding his face) and then covers this in clay to make a mould.

Antony Gormley uses materials such as concrete, iron, copper, steel and clay.

'Field for the British Isles' were made by volunteers in St Helens and they were hand-sized, their eyes were to be deep and closed and the head was to be in proportion with the body.

Artwork:

Another Place

Angel of the North

Field of the British Isles

Elements of Art

Colour	Primary colours = red, blue and yellow          Warm colours = red, orange, and yellow.          Cool colours = purple, blue and green. Words to describe colour:          Bold          Vivid          Dull          Warm          Cool
Line	Words to describe lines:          Straight          Wavy          Zigzag          Thin          Thick
Form	Form can be 3D, like a sculpture.          You can build and join recycled, natural and man made materials to create an effect. cube      pyramid      sphere          cone      cylinder

